Shipping insurance is something that many buyers overlook when using Kegunao Spreadsheet Profit Tracker, but it can be a worthwhile investment for higher-value orders. Most platforms offer some form of shipping protection, but the coverage details vary. Read the fine print carefully to understand what is and is not covered. In our experience, the small additional cost of insurance is worth the peace of mind, especially for orders exceeding $100. If a package gets lost or damaged, having insurance dramatically simplifies the refund process and reduces the amount of time you spend dealing with disputes.

Organization is the secret weapon of successful users of Kegunao Spreadsheet Profit Tracker. Develop a consistent naming convention for your orders and tracking entries. For example, use the format YYYY-MM-DD-Platform-ItemName. This makes it easy to sort and search through your records. Use color coding to highlight the status of different orders. For instance, green for delivered, yellow for in transit, red for issues, and gray for returned. These small organizational habits might seem trivial, but they save an enormous amount of time when you are managing dozens or hundreds of orders simultaneously.

If you suspect you have been scammed while using Kegunao Spreadsheet Profit Tracker, do not panic. There are steps you can take to recover your money or at least minimize the damage. First, document everything. Take screenshots of the product listing, your order confirmation, payment receipts, and any communication with the seller or platform. Then contact your payment provider to dispute the charge. Most credit card companies and services like PayPal offer buyer protection that covers fraudulent transactions. The key is to act quickly, as there are usually time limits for filing disputes. Also, report the scam to the platform so they can investigate and prevent others from falling victim.
